

Global and local pitch patterns

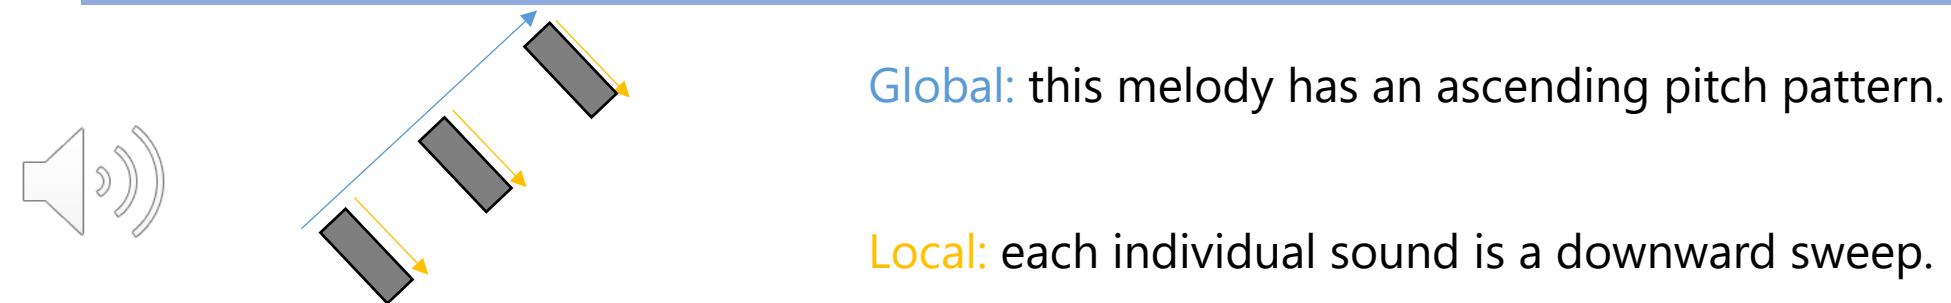

Each melody consists of three sounds, called sweeps. We will focus on two levels of organization:

- Global level: the overall pitch direction across the three sweeps (between sounds)
- Local level: the pitch direction within each individual sweep (within sounds).

Example

When the global and local directions differ:

Other combinations of global and local directions are possible...